

THOUGHT FOR 4th Sunday of EASTER (7/8th May): Knowing Jesus means more than knowing about him. It means to accept him as central to our lives and decisions. If we are his sheep and he is our shepherd then we have to listen out for his voice calling us always to greener pastures. The challenge is to know where to listen.

1st Reading: (Acts 13:14f). Paul and Barnabas preach the Gospel firstly to the Jews but they reject it; then they preach it to the Gentiles who receive it with joy.

2nd Reading: (Rev 7:9f). A vision of those who share in Christ's glory in heaven.

Gospel: (Jn 10:27-30). Jesus is portrayed as the Good Shepherd.

THOUGHT FOR 5th Sunday of EASTER (14/15th May): Jesus, the Son of Man, was glorified not because he wore his heart on his sleeve, but because he wore his heart on his hand. The same selfless giving to others, whoever and wherever they may be, is asked of those who would enter the kingdom of God.

1st Reading: (Acts 14:21-27). Paul and Barnabas retrace their steps, encouraging the little communities of Christians they had founded.

2nd Reading: (Rev 21:1-5). Taken for the final part of the Apocalypse, this opens with a vision of a new world and the new order of things inaugurated by Christ.

Gospel: (Jn 13:31-35). During the Last Supper Jesus gives his apostles a new commandment - to love one another as he has loved them.
