

THOUGHT FOR 6th Sunday of EASTER (21st/22nd May): Christ promises us peace. Peace does not mean that our lives will be untroubled or without worry. It's natural to be concerned about our future and that of our family and friends. But the peace which Jesus gives us is a peace which offers a deep-down calm and security that, whatever comes our way, we will not be abandoned by God.

1st Reading: (Acts 15:1-2,22-29). A big issue for the early Church was how much of the Law and traditions of Moses should be imposed on Gentile converts. This reading tells us how the problem was solved.

2nd Reading: (Rev 21:10-14,22-23). We are given a majestic picture of the new Jerusalem, the heavenly Church of the future, when God's Kingdom will come in all its glory.

Gospel: (Jn 14:23-29) We hear yet another portion of Jesus' farewell discourse at the Last Supper. It is dominated by the thought of his imminent departure.

THOUGHT FOR 7th Sunday of EASTER (28/29th May): The Ascension of the glorified Christ and the subsequent sending of the Spirit allow all believers to touch Christ, to see and know God and to live His life. The continuing prayer of Jesus in today's Gospel is for his disciples: "Keep them true to your name." That prayer is meant for each one of us too.

1st Reading: (Acts 2:1-11). St. Luke describes the descent of the Holy Spirit on the apostles, and the effect it had on them.

2nd Reading: (Rev 22:12-14f). We hear about the second coming of Jesus.

Gospel: (Jn 17:20-26). We share in part of the great prayer which Jesus made on behalf of his present and future disciples during the Last Supper.
